Hemel ERSA 26th June 2011

Over 210 racers crowded into the changing area downstairs and their entourage spent most of the day upstairs. With a limit of 150 racers at any one time in the dome and three different courses to manage the organisers had their work cut out. Thanks to the hard working team: Steve Lambert, Ian Mawson, Bernard Wright, Janet Jenkins, Dermot Flahive, Piet Van Kempen to name some of them, this race went incredibly smoothly. Despite the lack of a tannoy downstairs the racing itself went without a hitch.

With a large Hemel contingent it is hardly surprising they one the lions share of the medals, though they did not have every podium to themselves by any means.

The snow seemed to hold up well and the GS 'fun' races later in the day were a real hit for those that hung on.

Congratulations to everyone and we even managed to get home at a sociable time of day! (mainly because I didn't volunteer for anything)

Winner of the Team Evolution Hemel Training Camp this week were: Yasmin Cooper & Robert Poth. Award prizes, courtesy of Atomic & Level Gloves, to Chris Anderson for winning the "Guess the Time" Spot competition, guessing Sega & Max's time to 3 hundredths of a second!

Also, Congratulations to Jamie Johnston, who successfully guessed the closest time in the Level Gloves Spot Prize competition for non racers in this weekends Team Evolution ERSA race

Lift off

Up in the mountains

Don't you dare!

Textbook?

Smiling to a medal

OK, take aim for the next one!

Don't you dare!
(the sequel)

Taking it easy

A quite space to sort out the teams

Calling all Race Managers, Coaches and anyone with a sense of humour!!! Ipswich National & ERSA will see the return of the Pillories

Any other volunteers?

How about???

Steve Lambert, Janet Jenkins, Jon or Doug Cooper, John Reidy, John O'Neill, John Curtis – any of you up for it?

Spectating for the dedicated

Here's to the future.....

Still standing – but ouch!!

Chris asks can he race the GS course again

Quickest he moved that day (sorry Chris but Bev and Steve and Foo beat you!)
