Currently there are 107 racers for Norfolk.
 Lets see if we can make it 200 so the commentator (ROLF) has one hell of a day!

MK ERSA 5th June 2011

Where there is ski racing there seems to be drama and talking points.

Milton Keynes ERSA seemed to have it all!

The snow seemed to stand up reasonably well, just the usual problems of rutting, poles coming out and even a couple of broken poles!

Despite the parking fee and the early start over 180 racers arrived and crammed themselves mainly in the viewing areas. Despite initial hiccups with the timing gear considering the number of racers the officials breezed through the whole day.

A special mention has to go to the commentators coping with a whole assortment of unusual names in quick succession as it was a short quick course.

Lastly before the results and some photos, some interesting stats for those of a geeky temperament.

LASTLY

I'm not a journalist I'm just a volunteer.

Like many of you passionate volunteers there is a limit to the time and energy you can give.

This race report only has my opinion and images taken by me or occasionally Neil @ Racer Ready.

If I had other content I would be glad to add it.

Make this a region report and email me after Norfolk at graham.cuthbert@btinternet.com
